TRAINING OPPORTUNITY

Firefighting Strategy & Tactics

by Vincent Dunn, Deputy Chief F.D.N.Y. (Ret.)

When: 10/22/2011 / 8am-4pm

Where: Arcadia University - Stiteler Auditorium in Murphy Hall
450 S. Easton Rd, Glenside, PA 19038

Course Description: See Advertising Flyer. 6-hour seminar on FF Strategy & Tactics, followed by a 1-hour seminar on the Dangers of Operating on Peaked Roofs. Lunch Provided with Registration.

Final Head Count By 9/1/2011 - Seating is limited!!!

Presenter Info:

DEPUTY CHIEF VINCENT DUNN (retired) was a veteran of 42 years on the Fire Department of New York (FDNY), formerly of Engine 59, Engine 33, Engine 58, Battalion 25, Division 7 and retired from Division 3. He is the author of Safety and Survival on the Fireground and Collapse of Burning Buildings. Fire Engineering Books recently released his newest book, Command and Control of Fires and Emergencies. He developed and taught a number of courses for the FDNY, the FBI and the National Fire Academy and is a regular contributor to WNYF. He has a masters degree in urban studies, a bachelor's degree in sociology and an associate degree in fire administration from Queens College, City University of New York.